

ALLEGION™

Republic
DOORS AND FRAMES

Houston regional service center

Bringing out of this world service to Space City

Our local team of experts carefully curate and stock Republic centers based on regional preferences, modify the stock to your needs, and offer shipping from a site closer to your door. In other words, we have a product portfolio tailored for you with lower freight costs, quicker service, and a closer relationship with your provider.

Every center is backed by our primary manufacturing facility, so if there's ever anything you need that our regional centers don't offer, we'll call in our team who does.
